"Suppose I get sick? After all, I'm only human. And if I do get a touch of colic... or have a nervous breakdown... do you know what'll bring it on? Worry! Yes, sir, worrying about how long it would take us to get the doctor without a telephone in the house.

"Accidents might happen—burglars might enter—my mother might want to take advantage of a bargain sale. We need a telephone... and all Dad needs to do is to call the Business Office. I'd do it myself, but I can't. It's no wonder that worry is keeping me awake half the day!"

4 STEEL FACTS in one minute

School Training of Steel Workers
About half of the employees hired by the steel industry in 1936-37 had high school or college training, as against only one-fourth in 1929.

Steel for Household Goods Hit Peak in 1937
More steel went into household refrigerators, ranges and washing machines during 1937 than ever before, reflecting record purchases of household goods.

Tin Plate Once a Secret Product
The secret of producing tin plate was so closely guarded by the Bohemians in 1820 that the Duke of Saxony sent a spy to find out how it was made.

When Blast Furnaces Were Feminine
Old-time blast furnaces were often named after the wives or children of the iron makers. There were once nine furnaces in this country named Grace, five named Fanny, and four each called Emma, Elizabeth, Rebecca and Lucy.

Highway Group Seeks Crenshaw Improvement

With the development of Crenshaw boulevard (Cypress and Cedar avenue in Torrance) as its major objective, the Southwest Highways association continued to enlist official and civic assistance to this project at the monthly dinner-meeting last Thursday night in Hermosa's Municipal Auditorium. The association is seeking the improvement of Crenshaw through Inglewood and Torrance to Torrance boulevard and also to continue this major artery south to Rolling Hills and Palos Verdes Estates.

City and civic representatives from Redondo Beach, Hermosa Beach, Manhattan Beach, Inglewood, Hawthorne, Palos Verdes and other communities were in attendance at the session which also held the interest of Leonard Young, acting city engineer; DeKalb Spurlin and L. J. Gilmeister of this city.

The association decided to stimulate public interest in its highway program by inviting newspaper editors from all cities in the area to be special guests at future meetings. The next session will be held in Inglewood at a date to be decided later.

COORDINATORS COMMENDED

yourself a distinct honor as a civic worker.

"Numerous expressions of appreciation, from local people and visitors from outside of Torrance, substantiate and prompt these expressions in your behalf. Won't you please convey to those who assisted you our thanks?"

Rev. Porter's letter states: "I could not be true to my heart if I did not express to you my deep appreciation of the fine way in which the Factory Frolic was carried on. It was clean and free from objectionable features, clean fun for everyone. Such a festival is an asset to our city. I especially want to commend Jack Miller and Carl Marsteller. They gave so much time and energy to make it a success and to them we owe a debt of gratitude. By keeping the Frolic above reproach each of you will have the hearty support of all citizens next year."

These letters and others which may be received regarding the Frolic will be read to the Coordinating Council at its meeting and then filed away for the records. Miller said in expressing his appreciation for the "many kind words" received about the event.

Valley Residents Visit Mrs. Biggart

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kaufmann of El Sereno in the San Fernando Valley and their children, Helen Eythel and Alice, spent Sunday with Mrs. Kaufmann's mother, Mrs. Alice M. Biggart of West 174th street in North Torrance. Mrs. Biggart is one of the "first settlers" of the Alondra Park tract, having moved there some 30 years ago. She formerly owned about 600 acres in the North Torrance area.

Commercial Subjects Popular at Evening High School Here

Many new students are enrolling in commercial subjects at the Torrance Evening high school. The increase is thought to be due to the fact that many Civil Service examinations are to be given in the near future.

Commercial subjects such as beginning and advanced shorthand; beginning and advanced typewriting, bookkeeping and comptometer are being offered Monday and Wednesday from 7 to 9 p. m. The public is invited to attend these classes free of charge.
